

By Mr. Hall:

Q. What do you mean by diet?

A. Either dry toast or toast prepared or any thing of the kind, any thing that may be ordered.

Q. Is the bread buttered for them?

A. They butter their bread you understand, on the upper floor they have knives and forks, and some on the middle floor have them.

Q. What did you have for dinner today?

A. Fresh fish dinner, potatoes, tomatoes, white bread, rice with sauce, crackers and diet.

Q. Now for supper? A. White bread and butter, cake, hulled corn and milk, tea, crackers and diet.

Q. You were speaking about canned fruit, strawberries, blackberries &c. Did I understand that that was served out once in 3 weeks?

A. Usually. It would average that I think.

Q. How often do the patients get luxuries, as we generally call them. A luxury is some kind of preserve for supper? A. I believe I get it once in about 3 weeks.

Q. And apple sauce? A. It would be about the same. We always send sauce of some kind Sunday night for supper, and
