

Q. Did you have charge of all furniture repairs for a good many years there?

A. We did a great deal; I don't know whether all or not. In doing that I worked in and out of the wards, used to upholster their pettes. I used to do my work in the halls among the patients.

When I used to upholster I had keys of my own. I hardly know for how many years that continued; I should say 8 or 10 years perhaps.

Q. Did you get to be quite familiar with patients and attendants at various times?

A. Yes sir.

Q. I wish you would state to the Committee what the treatment of patients by attendants was, so far as you have ever seen in all those times you were in and out among the wards?

A. I never saw any thing out of the way; always treated well so far as I know or saw. We still continue to work there; worked there last fall.

I have been over there within a week.

Q. Did you ever in all those years, down to the present time, see a
