

prepared with milk and butter, crackers, diet, tea, butter. Wednesday is usually fresh fish dinner. Potatoes, white bread, crackers, diet, rice with sauce, tea. For tea, white bread, butter crackers, diet, sugar, cake and tea. Thursday through the winter season while we have plenty of vegetables, we have for dinner boiled corned beef and vegetables, and ham and eggs; vegetables or turnips; white bread, mince or apple pie, crackers and tea.

Q. How many pies does it take to go through the hills? A. I think about 90. Think we make about 300 a week.

Thursday night we have hot biscuit, honey or syrup, gingerbread, butter, crackers, tea. At this season of the year we are having clams and oysters alternately, every Friday during the winter season, usually from Nov. to April. And then we usually have soup or lamb.

Friday night, white bread, butter, gingerbread, butter or milk toast, crackers, diet, tea.

Q. Saturday. A. Saturday, codfish or mackerel white bread, crackers, diet, tea, rice with sauce. Then occasionally in the