

be in anger. Don't know whether Peter took it in anger. All he did was to dodge him. Peter didn't laugh. Once in a while he laughs. Don't remember if that I ever put paint on Peter's face; I might when I was at work at the bench put a little on his face, but I don't remember anything of the kind. I never did any such thing as a matter of cruelty or ill treatment of Peter.

2. Did it ever occur to you until this investigation came off and you heard your own testimony, that Samson ever intended to ill treat or abuse Peter Barnes?

A. I don't know as it did. At the time my son came home from college I received a letter from the president stating the reasons why he was sent home. That letter, by some unaccountable reason, has been misplaced and I cannot find it. I hunted very closely to find it and could not. The 14th of Aug.
