

thought proper for him to come back to send him back. At this time he was 16 years old I think.
 He was in poor health, pretty nearly
 as ~~told~~ as he is now, growing very fast. He never was a strong boy. He has been earning money to go back again. I am helping put him through.

By Mr. Baker:

Q. Did the letter state that your son was suspended indefinitely from the institution? A. I don't remember as to that.
 I knew he was suspended.

Q. He didn't come home on account of ill health did he? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Suspended on account of ill health?

A. I think his health was the means of it.

Q. But the letter didn't say his health was the means of his being suspended? A. No.

Q. The letter stated that he was suspended on account of his conduct, one kind and another, did it not?

A. Yes, sir.
