

Ques. Is anybody allowed to cut them except yourself.

Ans. No one has a key to the greenhouse, except Mr. Leakin, the watchman and myself.

Ques. You have these flowers both in winter and summer.

Ans. Have them in the green house in winter and on the grounds in summer.

Ques. Have you a pretty flourishing garden. Ans. Pretty fair under the circumstances, improving some.

Ques. Do you supply the sick rooms from time to time.

Ans. Yes sir.

Ques. When you speak of 8 bouquets a day, do you mean the winter & summer season. Ans. Winter; in the summer a good many more.

By Mr. Butler.

Ques. How many dining tables are there. Ans. One in the private, 2 in the upper first, 2 in the upper third, 2 in the middle second, one in the middle third, one in the old ladies' home, 2 in the lower first, and 1 in the lower 3d on the female side.

Ques. Do you carry them onto the male side.

Ans. Yes sir; put as many as three into the private part on the male side, sometimes not so many, would not average two. There are two tables in the
