

who asks the question, for his accommodation, and many other gentlemen for some times, for the information of the public, so that they might come there and learn about the abuses in the hospital:

Q. What do you call "frequently"? A. I think it is quite frequently that the man is being used for the accommodation of members of the legislature and others who wish to go there on business.

Q. Did you ever know me to have the use of one of those horses to go to the legislature, with which I was there? A. No, sir, I don't think I did. I think I have frequently sent man for the gentleman

Q. No, sir, you never did

A. I had the pleasure of riding with the gentleman myself, with a horse that belonged to the hospital.

Q. Certainly. But these horses we were speaking of. I keep a horse myself.

A. Q. Yes, sir. I think I have seen the gentleman in the coach.

Q. You said you had frequently done so

A. I said frequently used for other
