

by his bed being frequently wet, that was his habit, he was very bad in that respect.

Ques. What did your attendants do about it. Ans. Changed the clothing whenever it was wet, often several times a day.

Ques. Was everything done for the man in that respect that it was possible to do. Ans. I should say so.

Ques. Under whose immediate direction were you acting. Ans. Dr. Neal's.

Ques. Were you giving him medicines under Dr. Neal's directions. Ans. Yes, used to dilute carbolic acid and carbolic soap.

By Dr. Butler.

Ques. Did you ever hear of any harsh treatment.

Ans. Yes, I never saw any that I should call harsh treatment. I never have seen any more violence used than was necessary to subdue a man.

Ques. You have frequently seen them have to be carried to the lodge. Ans. Yes sir.

Ques. What should you call harsh treatment. Ans. If a person was injured I should call it harsh treatment.

Ques. Have you ever seen anybody injured there.

Ans. I do not think I ever did. I have seen one
