

Testimony of Nancy Butler, sworn.

By Mr. Dakin:

Q. Are you now employed in the hospital service

A. I am.

Q. In what capacity? A. In the kitchen cooking meats.

Q. Do you know who cooked the meats just before you took that duty? A. Morris Beightson who testified here to night.

Q. Had you had previous experience in cooking meats? A. I had.

Q. For about how many years? A. 25.

Q. Where at? A. Lewisville, De Witt house, Augusta at the Augusta House and out south at a hotel in Florida, four winters.

Q. Did you have reason to think you gave good satisfaction in these places as a meat cook? A. I did.

Q. Do you know of being recommended to the hospital service by a gentleman versed in hotel matters? A. Yes sir.

Q. And when you entered the service as meat cook at the hospital had you any particular instructions as to preventing the use of unsuitable meats? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Were you expected not to cook meats