

any time that I knew about it.

Ques. Were you Mr. Palmer's attendant two weeks before he died. Ans. No sir. I was in the private room, he was in the middle hall I think.

Ques. Did you see him every day during that time.

Ans. I guess there was no day but what I saw him. I saw him most every night; I used generally to go to bed about 9 o'clock.

Ques. You did not see him from 9 o'clock in the night till what time in the morning. Ans. Probably 5 or 6 in the morning.

Ques. You do not know whether he was cold at midnight or not do you. Ans. Of course not, but when I have seen the lodge the temperature would be warm enough all night. I have been into the lodge at 12 or 1 o'clock at night.

Ques. Do you say that he never was put into the lodge naked. Ans. Not that I know of.

By Mr. Baker.

Ques. You knew Mr. Crowel well. Ans. Yes sir.

Ques. Do you think Mr. Crowel would have taken your brother-in-law out in a half frozen state without having informed you; you used to see him
