

was not a day but what I saw him.

Ques. Was Paloner an immense man. Ans. He was a very large, very strong man, hard to handle, as bad a patient as I ever saw. He had to be put into the lodge frequently.

Ques. Were you familiar with the lodges. Ans. Yes. One winter I was attendant upon the lodges.

Ques. Did you frequently see your brother-in-law in the lodge. Ans. Yes sir. He was never put in without clothing that I know of.

Ques. State as to the temperature of the lodges. Ans. There was no time that I had charge of the lodge but what it was plenty warm enough.

Ques. Did you ever feel the temperature of the lodge rooms when it was out or anywhere near the point of freezing. Ans. I never did.

Ques. Did you ever see a man put into the lodges that suffered from cold by reason of the temperature of the lodge rooms. Ans. No sir.

Ques. Could your brother-in-law have been put into the lodge room and suffered from cold, without your learning of it. Ans. I do not think he could.

Ques. Were you in the habit of talking with him freely. Ans. Yes sir.
