

A. Yes sir.

Q. And when issued it would be issued day by day, one two or more gallons at a time? A. Yes, sir.

Q. And charged at? A. Yes sir.

Q. Sugar would be received in what sort of bulk? A. In barrels.

Q. Dealt out in what measure? A. Pounds.

Spice would be received in ~~bulk~~ pounds and usually dealt out in the same fashion.

Teas would be received in chests. Coffee is received in pounds. These goods are issued and charged to the kitchen department.

My responsibility ceased at that point when I was in the grocery department.

Q. Into whos responsibility did you understand this food material ^{then} passed? A. To the meat cook and assistant mabon.

Q. That is the same today is it? A. Yes sir.

Q. These people are then responsible for it?

A. Yes sir.

Q. So that when it came into your hands and while it remained there and until it passed into use you were responsible for it? A. Yes sir.

Q. And supposing during this time you