

- Q. Have to get the food to the patients
- Q. Were you in any way responsible for the quality of the ~~food~~ meat passing through your hands then? A. Not that I know of.
- Q. You were not there held responsible
- A. No, sir.
- Q. Was there some one employed in your place? A. Yes sir.
- Q. During the 6 years you were cook you remember now but 3 cases distinctly in which your attention was called to bad meat? A. That is all I can remember at present.
- Q. Do you think it possible that there may have been some other cases where there was a complaint of that kind? A. There may have been. I remember the 3 cases because I was called to ^{Dr. Harlow's} ~~the~~ office both times, and he asked me if I was responsible and I told him I supposed I was.
- Q. Now then, I understood you to say that during those 6 years of service you think it cannot be possible that there were more than 6 cases, and it might have been less, in which meat unfitted for human food passed through your hands? A. I don't know of
