

patient is suffering from cold or heat, or to see if there is any thing he is to be supplied with: Ans. That has always been understood since I have been there. And there is clothing provided in what is called the baggage room for him to ~~see~~ get and use without applying to any body.

Ques. To guard against the possibility of a man being cold at a given time is one of the reasons why the night watch goes about: Ans. One of his duties. There are many others. There are 2 of those men and 2 women.

Ques. You heard the testimony of one of those men that he found Palmer cold: Ans. Yes sir.

Ques. And gave him clothing. That was one of his duties, to give him clothing, was it not: Ans. I have always understood it to be his duty.

By Mr. Butler:

Q. Are there not frequently men in those lodges who hardly know their condition and would be likely not to apply for clothing: Ans. O, yes, sir, I think there are
