

By Mr. Baker:

Q. What circumstances? A. I don't know as I could really state the circumstances. Don't know as I can call Samsun a cruel man. He is a man who would do a generous act. In a great many things he is a kind hearted man. He is rather a generous hearted man. Don't think he is an inhuman man.

Mr. Pattangall: Is he not about as the men average of man kind?

A. Well, he is a man of very quick temperament, and perhaps do things on the impulse of the moment ~~that~~ he would not if he stopped to think a moment.

By Mr. Baker:

Q. Did you ever see him touch Peter when you thought he was in anger?

A. I don't know as I ever did.

Don't know as he would do Peter an unkindness when he was in anger; I should not suppose he would. I never saw him do one.
