

Faneemy Pears

43

Clara Hepburn says that old Faneemy killed three pedlars for their packs. Her aunt refused to sleep in his house, "fell like som one would kill her." "He stopped there, a big man, paid nothing, said he felt as if he was like something coming - When dark fell like som one takes hold of him. When he went out of door he backed out - When old Faneemy died at to the three men it was in - Says "If I don't go I'll kill three of 'em, I don't go dat devil."

In stories of Faneemy Pears see my red words note book, under pages for Oct 2, Dec 28 + Dec 27 - This tells of his taking mosquitoes, his "catching hornbeams" etc -
It might be dead date 1881, totally blind
