

him out.

Ques. Were your relations with Mr. Paloxer such and his freedom of communication with you such that he would state to you any injury he had received. Ans. Yes, if there had been any such thing.

Ques. Would he in his violent moods be you quicker than anybody else. Ans. Yes, he seemed to. They sent for me several times when he was in these violent spells and I always went, I could seem to do better with him than anyone else.

Ques. During all the time you were there as attendant, did you ever see any patient ill-treated by an attendant. Ans. No, never saw more force used than was necessary to take care of the patient.

Ques. You have no connection with the hospital crew.

Ans. No sir.

Ques. Did you know Mr. Sampson the engineer while you were there. Ans. Yes. I am well acquainted with him. I was frequently in his engine room. When I was in the private I used to go down there most everyday with the patients.

Ques. Did you know Peter Haines. Ans. Yes sir.

Ques. And Sweeney. Ans. Yes sir.