

the date's distinctly. Since I have been there this last time I haven't had access to the halls or been in the halls much.

By Mr. Baker:

Q. Do you know that Peter Barnes was taken out of the engine room at the written request of Mr. Sanson? A. He told me it was.

Q. Do you think Peter Barnes is happier or unhappier by reason of being taken out of the engine room? A. I could not tell.

I haven't seen him since. I think it would make no difference to him.
 He is generally happy wherever he is.
 He seemed to be entirely happy and contented under Sanson when he was there.

Q. You were once engineer there and Sanson took your place? A. Yes sir.

Q. And you afterwards worked under him?

A. Yes, he took my place, but he was not my next successor. I was head engineer about 3 years.

Q. Do you mean to say you ever examined to see what underclothing
 Peter Barnes had on? A. Yes, sir.

Q. During all these years you have been
