

174. read and referred to the Committee on Roads and Bridges, in concurrence

Petition of Joseph Stockbridge and others, praying for alteration of the Constitution so as to have the sessions of the Legislature held in the summer— read and refer—red to the Committee that have that subject under consideration, in concu-—rence.

Petition of Samuel H. Gilman and others, of Hallowell,

— " — of Calvin Newton and others, of Waterville;

— " — of Rufus Hill and others, praying for the repeal or modification of the law regulating the practice of Physic and Sur—gery, came up referred to a Joint Select Committee, consisting on the part of the House of Reps. Paine of Hallowell, Henswilton of Montville, Sewall of Scarborough, Soule of Cambridge, Stinson of Richmond, Godfrey of Goldborough and Ellis of Etna, with such as the Sen—ate may join— severally read and re—ferred and Reps. Edward Robinson, Woodman and Swift are joined, in con—currence.

Petition of Stephen Sewall and others, praying that our Senators, in Congress be "instructed" and our Representatives "re—quested" to use all proper means to effect