

Q. Is your family larger than any of your subordinates? A. Yes sir.

B. B. Bakin, recalled.

By Mr. Oak:

Q. Did you go after a patient that had run away?

A. Yes, I went without orders.

Q. And did you have a pretty hard race?

A. Ran about 4 miles through the fields with heavy rubber boots on, and pretty warm weather too.

Q. You got the patient? Was it Bangs?

A. I did not get him. Samson who has been upon the stand this evening got him.

Q. You got him back? A. Yes, sir. I helped drag him back. He was pretty tired himself. Finally got him into the house. I went to the office to get those rubber boots off.

Q. Were you pretty tired? A. I was.

Q. Who was present? A. The superintendent and I think Mr. Neal.

Q. Tell us what took ~~breath~~ place?

A. As fast as I could get breath I told the superintendent what we had done. I
