

vigilance and care with which the superintendent has selected his attendants and looked after them to see that they did their duty. Ans. I do not know of anything I need find fault with in that direction. From time to time I called his attention to the condition of the patients, some of them, friends and acquaintances of mine, and I always noticed that he carried their names readily and knew all about them, he was able to give me such information as showed to my mind that he was familiar with them in every respect.

Ques. Do you know whether political reasons enter at all, or political inquiries are made at all with reference to the engagements of attendants. Ans. I never heard anything of the kind.

Ques. You know Dr. Harlan well. Ans. Yes sir.

Ques. Is he a man who mingles in politics.

Ans. I do not think I ever heard him talk on that subject.

Ques. Have you been a physician. Ans. Formerly; am not in active practice now.

Ques. What is your view of the management of this institution, whether it is what could be reasonably