

Q. How is it as to evenness of temperament and action? A. Dr. Barlow is a man I rarely ever see excited.

Q. Since you have been on the board there has there been any evidence that the institution is managed and a class of attendants employed governed by political reasons to any degree whatever? A. I never have seen anything there of that coming into any question connected with the attendants, if I understand the method of their selecting their attendants as represented to me.

I have never understood that that was a question that came into consideration in the employment of attendants or help.

By Mr. Butler:

Q. You never heard politics talked over there at all did you? A. I never heard politics enter into the ^{question of} ~~employment~~ to my knowledge.

Q. But you some times talk politics?

A. I would not say that the question of politics is not mentioned; I presume it is.

Q. Are you opposed to a female physician any where in society? A. No, sir, no objection to a female physician any more than I have to a male, and I certainly haven't
