

Q. Was she out again at tea as usual A. Yes sir; she always comes to her meals.

Q. If she hadn't been at the attendants would have gone to see what the trouble was would they

A. Yes sir

Q. It was the other attendant who had the immediate charge of putting her to bed and every thing of that sort A. Yes sir.

Q. The next morning did you see her at breakfast as usual A. Yes sir.

Q. Had she then begun to show marks of the injury A. Yes, her face was blush the next morning.

Q. What part of the face. A. Round her eyes.

Q. Did it continue so for some time A. Yes, for a number of weeks.

Q. And that is all there is about the case is it? A. That is all I know.

Q. She came to her meals right along every day A. Yes.

Q. After that time just the same as before A. Yes sir.
