

side without calling the attention of any other person to it? A. No sir.

Q. To whom would you report the circumstances?

A. To you since you have been there, Steward and Treasurer.

Q. Did it ever come to your knowledge during all this period while you were in charge of the grocery department that there was any bad meat received? do you remember any case while you were in charge of the grocery department?

A. No, sir, after I had the care myself. I didn't have the care at first.

Q. I would like to ask you if your duties as auditor give you the opportunity of knowing about the quality of food that goes into use there at the hospital? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Are you charged with this?

A. I have the care of it entirely.

Q. You have greater care of it now than when you were grocery clerk? A. Yes sir.

When I was grocery clerk my responsibility extended only to the raw material. Now my responsibility extends after it is cooked in the form of food.
