

and faithful and disposed to treat their patients kindly

Q. Have you ever seen or known of a case of abuse of a patient by an attendant

A. I have never known of a case of abuse since I have been connected with the hospital. I don't know how the discipline of the superintendent and officers can be any more strict than it is. I think the attendants, so far as I can learn, at any rate, — and I get it from various sources — feel that they are under strict discipline. I think they feel that any violation of rule there calls them to account, and if there is any violation that amounts to anything that they have to leave the service.

Q. What has been your observation and your information, as the head of the board, as to the ~~diligence~~^{vigilance} exercised by the officers in charge there, and discoveries of deviations from duty? A. I have considered that they have been watchful and vigilant over the general affairs, and general movements in the halls.

Q. Have you ever seen any thing to change that view? A. I have not.
