

spoken to some times, and a man might like to speak to him some times to hear what he would say.

Q. Ever see Samson hit Peter with the water that he threw A. Yes sir.

By Mr. Hall

Q. Then again, Samson has brought his hand up ~~playfully~~ pretty near his ear but he never quite touched it.

Ever see him touch his ear A. I have.

Q. A part of a little love-pat or a solid cuff A. It struck hard enough, so I could hear it across the room.

By Mr. Butler

Q. Did it finally amount to this; that they made him a bit of their ridicule as they would with a simple child

A. Yes sir, I considered it some thing like that; large boys fucking on a little one.

By Mr. Baker:

Q. That you never did yourself of course

You never joined all the rest of the men in that did you A. I must confer myself guilty of plaguing Peter some what as the others did. I don't
