

By Mr. Hall:

Q. Have you seen Peter within a few days? A. I saw him for just a moment yesterday.

Q. Do you know whether he has had a new suit of clothes since you testified here or not? A. I didn't notice him particularly. He was sitting down and I merely passed by him yesterday. I didn't take notice enough of him to say on oath what he did have on.

Q. Did you notice whether Peter was fixed up better than he was before you testified? A. He looked smoother I think. I noticed that he didn't look quite as dirty as usual, as I had seen him.

Q. Where did you see him?

A. In the fire room of the insane hospital, yesterday, when I went over after my father.

Q. Didn't you testify that you tied his coat
