

Clara's Story of the Mohawks - (March 1917)

At all times. I see canoe skin hearts', on shore, little boys took those five canoes. Children singing "Come in"; Ples Standin' in five canoes, fishes been cut by boy canoes - (little boys of p. fun, & scalps) [That is the bad part in the time the fishes' heads cut off - they stretch them up as men would have stretch up & scalps, they were playing his ovarins]

"Go-aymit - go-aymit" - "sing, 'lets sing'"
"How he's going give bad luck dose you ones", says old Ples.

"How you Mohawks kill where you."

(So when the boys came back for their work the old ones were all ready for them)

So they went into water at Kchi-siti-mok, with boys and give good lickin' all way home.

Now by boy told others, How you like your lickin'? In your like lickin' the tongue
