

Testimony of Francis M. Stackpole.

By Mr. Baker.

Ques. Were you Goochin's attendant at one time. Ans. I was night nurse while he was sick in the sickroom.

Ques. Did he have sores on his person then. Ans. He was some considerable sore, I do not see how it could be helped very well.

Ques. Do you know what was the cause of them. Ans. I do not know of any reason only his low state of health and being bed-ridden.

Ques. Were you with him all the time he was in the sick room. Ans. Night I was.

Ques. How much care did he require and whether he had all the care that was necessary. Ans. He required a change of clothing as much as 10 or 11 times through the night.

Ques. Were you specially detailed to take care of this particular man. Ans. Not specially. I had other patients to care for as well as him.

Ques. Was there anything that needed to be done for him during all that time which was not done.

Ans. I do not see as there was anything could be done more than what was done.
