

- Q. They were raised on the place: A. They were from yearlings. I am quite positive they came onto the place when they were yearlings.
- Q. Have you ever butchered any male hogs?
- A. I never have.
- Q. Ever butchered a hog that had been a male for some years and ceased to be?
- A. Yes sir.
- Q. How long must a hog go after he ceases to be a male before he is fit to butcher?
- A. From 6 months to a year.
- Q. Did you ever butcher one that had ceased to be a male for as much as 6 months? A. I never did.
- Q. Do you know about this? A. I do.
- Q. You are present at the time of their changing? A. I am.
- Q. And present at the time of their butchering?
- A. I am.
- Q. Whether some hogs there are known by names?
- A. They are.
- Q. For what reason? A. They are registered animals bought from off the premises; from Pennsylvania and Ohio I think the most of them came, from bought when they were young.
- Q. Ever know a hog there that went by the
