

unsuitable for food? A. I was.

Q. Were you cautioned very strenuously about it? A. I was.

Q. Did you receive notice that it could not be tolerated? did you receive notice that if any bad meats were cooked and sent into the halls you would be held to blame? A. Yes sir.

Q. Were you given to understand that it might cost you your discharge? A. I was.

Q. What part of meats have you had to cook? good or bad when they came into your possession? A. All very good.

Q. How did they compare as a general rule with those you cooked at the Mansin House in this city? A. They compared favorably.

Q. How did they compare with the meats you cooked at the De Witt House? A. Very good.

I think they were as good as those I cooked at the De Witt House or the Mansin House

Q. Do you also cook the fish, or assist? A. I do.

Q. And did you understand that the orders relating to the meats also applied to the fish? A. Yes, sir.