

patient bruise another. I saw a patient by the name of In'Carthy strike a patient by the name of In'urch. I was the attendant, was not near enough to prevent it.

Ques. Is that all that was done to him, just struck him once. Ans. Yes, I separated them. He was very violent by spells sometimes, usually quieted right down in a few minutes.

Ques. Did you ever hear this word churning.

Ans. I think I never heard it used in the sense it has been used before the committee. I think I never heard it used in any sense as to the treatment of patients.

By Mr. Baker.

Ques. How many years have you been there. Ans. About three years and a half.

By Mr. Hall.

Ques. Do you know a patient by the name of Woodson who pushed a man down that got his hip broken. Ans. I think he did, think the man's name was Whitney.

Ques. That is the only flagrant case of a patient being hurt by another patient that you know of. Ans. Yes sir.
