

one of his attendants; he was lodge attendant then.

Ques. Did you know the night watch. Ans. Yes, used to see them every day, used to talk with all of them.

Ques. Did anyone of them ever mention to you, any such thing about Palmer as his at any time suffering from cold in the lodges. Ans. No. I never heard of his being taken out of the lodge in a suffering condition from cold.

Ques. Do you think that thing could have occurred, and you situated as you were, without your knowing it or being informed of it afterwards. Ans. Not without my knowing it in some way.

Ques. From your knowledge of the temperature of the lodges, do you think it could have occurred any way.

Ans. I do not.

Ques. Are you still engaged in tending upon the insane.

Ans. Yes, a private attendant upon Judge May's, went from the hospital there.

Ques. You knew Dr. Whidden. Ans. Yes sir; he used to dine in the room I had charge of.

Ques. Do you remember the time when he struck one of the patients. Ans. I remember one time when he struck two patients, Dr. Emery on the right and Dr.
