

after he had been at the table a few minutes he would slap him beside the head and drive him off.

Ques. What other things beside slapping beside the head did he tell you about. Ans. General abuse. The man was perfectly terror stricken. I think the man honestly was afraid he was going to be killed.

Ques. Did you see or hear of any other instances of abuse over there. Ans. I heard of a thousand.

Ques. Give us three or four. Ans. As I was going through the halls, a man would come up and say I have left my farm and my home and here I am, aint I fit to go home; I used to say, I don't know, it seems as if you ought go; they will say I have left my family and Dr. Hallow is keeping me here, I don't get enough to eat, I am locked into that room, at home my doors are always open, if they should get a fire how should I get out. That same man ought be brought from his home so vident that he could not be kept there with safety to his family.

Ques. Do you suppose there are not men there who were not dangerous either to themselves or their families.

Ans. I do.
