

was changed in 1874.

Ques. Were not the services of Dr. Harlow in that regard audited and paid for by the Bd. and council?

Ans. It is was the last days of 1873; I went out of office that year.

Ques. Was it not in 1874 that Dr. Daughton went out.

Ans. No, it was the last days of 1873.

Ques. Was not Dr. Harlow put in charge of the funds there under the Bd. and council of which you were member.

Ans. I do not understand that the Bd. and council had anything to do with that.

Ques. Was he not put in charge during the term of your office. Ans. Yes sir.

Ques. Were you present at the time the matter was first discussed by the trustees. Ans. I was present when they made that arrangement.

Ques. Did you then state to them that you believed, and charge that Dr. Harlow had guilty knowledge of the defalcation which you allege. Ans. I did not.

Ques. You suffered that to go on without lifting your voice to make the charge when the facts were fresh in your mind. Ans. Yes sir.

Ques. Although you were an official then, you neglected
