

that time till he died. Ans. That is what I understood.
By Mr. Lall.

Ques. What time of year was this. Ans. I cannot say; it might have been late in the fall or early in the spring, or might have been in the winter; it was cold weather. I know the man died soon after that.

Testimony of John H. Keaton.

By Mr. Baker.

Ques. Did you know Marcus Smart. Ans. Knew him well.

Ques. Whether you remember one morning hearing that he had complained in the night of being half frozen.

Ans. I remember the circumstances very well. In the morning as I came along by the wing I looked up and saw the glass all broken out and the blind open, and I made the remark to my son who was carrying me to the hospital, someone has given me another job; when I got in they said you have got a job, a window broken. I went up into the lodge room and Smart had managed to get the blind open; this blind is a wire screen between the window and the <sup>inside of the</sup> lodge room made of No. 12 wire
