

then on account of his politics Q. Outside of your personal vote you take very little interest?

A. I take no part in it at all.
 I simply vote, using no influence outside whatever, or with any one inside. I have never in any way sought to obtain or prejudice the vote of an employe in my service, and I have never known one of my officers to do it except the Supervisor, Bodkins.
 I think I have known him to do it sometimes. For a while he was a republican and afterwards he was a Greenbacker. He was elected to a ward office I believe at one time, common council. I have the discharging and Mr. Dudley: Does any one, when making an application by letter, ever state their politics? A. Never except in one instance.

Q. Who was that A. Mr. ^{G. W.} Pimms of Ballouwell.
 He was a greenbacker I believe. His friends stated them for him. He was employed. We make no discrimination politically in giving out work from the
