

one or twice through the week besides

By Mr. Lakin:

Q. Are we to understand there is a relish given only once in 3 weeks, or that some particular thing is given only once in 3 weeks? A. We have blackberries, blueberries and strawberries, and we send one perhaps one time and the next time it comes round we send another kind.

Mr. Hall: Apple sauce how often?

Witness: I should think it might be about the same sauce for Sunday night supper, or frones, frones one night and apple sauce the next.

Q. How often do you send honey all round the house? A. I should think that might average about once in 3 weeks. Then we send syrup and sauces between times.

Q. Do they get some sort of relish of this kind as often as twice a week?

A. Yes, sir. They get some kind of sauce or some thing of that description three times a week. There is one little item of 4th of July that I omitted of which I might speak, and that is our ice cream which we send out through the
